

REVOLT

REVOLT

For our first collection 'Revolt', Six Buttons Down celebrates women's right to choose to be who they are. The range is a pride of bold attires with the balance of delicacy and the spirit of an untamed desire to make space for all yourselves in the closet of life. Inspired by the powerful women of the world, Six Buttons Down is the first label in town dedicated solely to let woman be comfortable in seeking her passion.

Our pride is stitched with intricate details. The tempting timeless range of jackets, trousers and shirts; all made of exclusively pampered fabrics such as silk, organza, high quality suiting fabrics. They are stitched intimately into some audacious collars, poised pleats, manipulative cuts, benevolent pockets and witty buttons and zippers. The pride is raised in rebellious tones of army green, earthly brown, sparks of fiery mustard, and all the other strong elements that dares to make up a woman.
